

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Use some Halloween candy or coins and make AB patterns.	Write a sentence using the word, to , for example, "I have to _____."	Write a capital and lowercase li three times while saying the sound it makes.	Trace around your hand to draw a turkey. Give him 10 tail feathers, then color him.	Read to a parent: can the like a see I go to have we
Write your phone number. Read the digits. Memorize it.	Write a sentence using the word, is , for example, "The food is _____."	Write a capital and lowercase Jj three times while saying the sound it makes.	Draw a Ten-Frame. Use pennies to show 5 and 10 on the Ten-Frame. Have your parent quiz you with other numbers.	Count to 100 by 10's.
Write the numbers 0-10, with your best handwriting. Always start at the top and go down, and start left and go right when writing.	Write a sentence using the word, play , for example, "I like to play _____."	Write a capital and lowercase Kk three times while saying the sound it makes.	Have a parent say the sounds, then you say the word: t-i-p (tip), c-u-t (cut), s-a-p (sap), o-n (on), s-o-f-t (soft).	Write at least one complete sentence telling why you like Thanksgiving. Use sound spelling for hard words.
Create a work of art. This can be a watercolor painting, a craft, or another creation of your choice. Put your name on it.	Write a sentence using the word, little , for example, "I see a little _____."	Tell a parent 3 words that rhyme with pie.	Make a list of the foods your family eats on Thanksgiving Day. Count them.	Count to 100 by 1's. You may sing the song.
There were 5 turkeys and 3 flew away. How many are left? Use fingers or draw a picture to show the answer.	Write your first and last name neatly. Use capital letters only at the beginning of each name, and put a finger space between names.	Write a capital and lowercase Ll three times while saying the sound it makes.	Draw 10 acorns. Write the numbers 1-10 neatly, with one number on each acorn. Then, add one more. How many are there now?	Spend 20 minutes on the computer reading the Learn to Read books at www.starfall.com . Zac the Rat is the first one.